

CONFEDERATION CENTRE OF THE ARTS

CONFEDERATION PLAYERS 2020

Do you have a passion for history?

Do you love to weave a tale whether it be based in truth or only fleetingly so?

Interested in spending your days sharing your passion for history and storytelling with others in amongst games of horseshoes, croquet and the occasional duel? Have we got the job for you!

Confederation Centre of the Arts is now hiring for the 2020 season of The Confederation Players! The Confederation Players offers a glimpse into the cultural and historical context of the 1864 Charlottetown Conference and Confederation 1867 through historic vignettes, improvised interactions, and guided experiential tours of Olde Charlottetown. Players are trained to assume the roles of key characters around the time of Confederation and to PEI's important role as the Birthplace of Confederation. The program's focus is on promoting and sharing Canadian history through entertaining and informative interactions through daily tours interwoven with historic vignettes, improvised interactions, songs and so much more.

Are you interested in joining the team? Are you eligible to work in Canada?

Have you:

- completed a high school diploma or equivalent education;
- a willingness to wear period costumes and hold theatrical character;
- an interest in Canadian history and culture;
- feel comfortable leading large groups and dealing with the public;
- excellent communication, customer-service, and interpersonal skills;
- high level of maturity, self-awareness, attention to detail, and professional integrity;
- strong time management skills and punctuality;
- ability to take direction and work within a team environment?

If you answered 'Yes! Yes! Yes!' with growing enthusiasm, please submit your resume with cover letter and headshot to the attention of:

Sarah Denman-Wood, Associate Producer, Confederation Centre of the Arts to sdw@confederationcentre.com or mail to 145 Richmond Street, Charlottetown, PE, C1A 1J1.

Confederation Players will be employed on a seasonal, full-time basis in Charlottetown, PEI from June 8th – August 16th, 2020. Additional work may be offered for special events and into the fall.

Bilingualism and experience studying or working in history, arts and/or culture are all considered as assets for this position. We strongly encourage submissions from people of all backgrounds, cultures, genders, abilities, and identities with varying degrees of experience.

Closing Date: Friday, January 31, 2020

Please note that only those selected for interview/audition will be contacted.
