

CONFEDERATION CENTRE OF THE ARTS CONFEDERATION PLAYERS 2020 - TAKE 2!

Do you have a passion for history and storytelling?

Interested in spending time sharing that passion and exploring the untold perspectives of Canadian history? Have we got a job for you!

Due to programming changes given COVID-19, Confederation Centre of the Arts is looking to hire two people for The Confederation Players programme.

The Confederation Players program offers a glimpse into the cultural and historical context of the 1864 Charlottetown Conference and Confederation through historic vignettes, improvised interactions, and guided experiential tours of Olde Charlottetown.

This summer, due to COVID19 we will not be giving public tours. The Players instead will be researching and developing scripts and materials to incorporate unheard perspectives and voices not generally highlighted in the study of Confederation and its era.

Are you interested in joining the team?

- ✓ Are you eligible to work in Canada? ✓ Between 19-30 years old?

Preference will be given to those with knowledge and understanding of the history and culture of Mi'kmaq and other Indigenous peoples, women and/or other marginalized (BIPOC) people during the era of Confederation (pre and post).

Have you:

- completed a high school diploma or equivalent education;
- excellent communication, and interpersonal skills;
- high level of maturity, self-awareness, attention to detail, and professional integrity;
- strong time management skills and punctuality;
- an interest/ability in creative writing;
- the ability to work well within a team environment?

If so, please submit your resume with cover letter to the attention of:

Sarah Denman-Wood, Associate Producer, Confederation Centre of the Arts to sdw@confederationcentre.com or mail to 145 Richmond Street, Charlottetown, PE, C1A 1J1.

We STRONGLY encourage submissions from people of all backgrounds, cultures, genders, abilities, and identities with varying degrees of experience.

Employment with Confederation Players is on a seasonal, full-time basis (35 hours/week) in Charlottetown, PEI from June 29th – August 29th, 2020.

All applications must be received no later than 12pm Monday, June 15, 2020
